

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: FRIDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1887

SPECIAL NOTICES.

OMAHA

Advertisements under this head 10 cents per line for the first insertion; 15 cents for each subsequent insertion. $1.00 a line per column. No advertisement taken for less than 25 cents for the first insertion. Seven words will be counted as one line; they must run consecutively. If not, the line will be counted as two lines. Advertisements must be handed in before 12 o'clock p.m., and under no circumstances will they be accepted after that hour.

Parties advertising in the columns and having the answers addressed in care of the Bee, will please ask for a check to enable them to get their letters published. It is given free on presentation of check. All answers to advertisements should be enclosed in envelopes. A copy of the Bee is sent to all persons listed in both morning and evening editions of the Bee, the circulation of which aggregated more than 14,000 papers daily, and gives the advertising information to all the cities and towns of the Bee, but also of Council Bluffs, Lincoln and other cities and towns throughout this part of the west.
